Use case name	View cart
Related requirements	Customer can view all the food that currently in their cart
Goal in the context	A request of the customer to view the cart from system
Preconditions	The customer must access the website of the restaurant
Successful end condition	A cart displayed in the customers' devices
Failed end condition	A notification sent to the customer that the cart cannot be loaded at the moment
Primary actors	The customer
Secondary actors	Food ordering system
Trigger	The customer asks the Food ordering system to view the cart
Main flow	1. The customer clicks on the "View cart" button 2. Food ordering system sends the cart information to the customer 3. The customer adds or removes the food or go to the checkout
Extension	2.1 The system cannot access to the customer's cart 2.2 The request from the customer is rejected
Use case name	Confirm order
Related requirements	The clerk can confirm the order of the customer
Goal in the context	The order need to be confirmed as valid
Preconditions	The order must be placed by the customer
Successful end condition	The system saves the order's information and sends a notification to the customer
Failed end condition	A notification sent to the customer that their order cannot be confirmed at the moment
Primary actors	The clerk
Secondary actors	Food ordering system
Trigger	The clerk asks the Food ordering system to confirm the order
Main flow	1. The clerk confirms the order on the system 2. If successful, the system confirms the order and sends a notification to the customer
Extension	2.1 If the order cannot be confirmed at the moment, the system rejects confirming the order 2.2 The request of the customer is rejected
Use case name	Place order
Related requirements	The customer can order the food on the website of the restaurant
Goal in the context	A request of the customer to place order
Preconditions	The customer must access the website of the restaurant
Successful end condition	The order of the customer is processed by the system

Use case name	Place order
Failed end condition	A notification send to the customer that their order cannot be placed at the moment
Primary actors	The customer
Secondary actors	Food ordering system
Trigger	The customer asks the Food ordering system to place the order
Main flow	1. include::ViewCart 2. include::ConfirmOrder 3. The customer pays for the order
Extension	3.1 The customer pays the order by credit card 4 Customer can send feedback to the system